Saint Vincent College courses that are numbered at the 100 level are considered "survey" courses. Typically first-year students register for these courses. Courses numbered 200 and above are considered upper-level courses.

A schedule is published at the beginning of each semester, indicating the instructor, time and place of meeting for the courses offered. Courses listed in the Bulletin may not be available every semester. The administration may cancel courses for which there is insufficient registration.

Change in Department Structure

The Alex G. McKenna School of Business, Economics, and Government has been organized effective July 1, 2001. The following majors are included with the McKenna School: Accounting, Economics, Business Education, Environmental Affairs, Finance, International Business, Management, Marketing, Political Science, and Public Policy.

Formed in 2004, the School of Social Sciences, Communication, and Education encompasses the Departments of Communication, Education, Psychology, and Sociology and Anthropology. The departments share in common a concern with how people develop and interact in a wide range of settings, as well as a commitment to the approaches common to the social sciences. Programs in the School share a commitment to active and experiential learning and to student research. Associated with the School are the Saint Vincent College Drug and Alcohol Prevention Projects and the Fred M. Rogers Center for Early Learning and Children's Media.

Formed in 2004, the Herbert W. Boyer School of Natural Sciences, Mathematics, and Computing houses the departments of Biology, Chemistry, Computing and Information Science, Mathematics, and Physics. In addition to the majors of these departments, the School offers majors in Biochemistry, Bioinformatics, and Environmental Science. Teacher certification may be obtained in Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Education, Mathematics, and Physics. Cooperative programs with other institutions of higher education enable students to pursue degrees in engineering, occupational therapy, pharmacy, physical therapy, and physician assistant.

The School of Humanities and Fine Arts was established, effective July 1, 2004. The School contains the following academic departments and programs: English, Fine Arts (Art and Music), History, Liberal Arts, Modern and Classical Languages, Philosophy, and Theology. The Saint Vincent Gallery and the College's Stage and Theatre programs are also part of the School of Humanities and Fine Arts.
