

SAINT VINCENT COLLEGE FACT BOOK HIGHLIGHTS 2008-2009

RETENTION

Freshman-to-Sophomore retention remains strong, with the entering Fall 2007 cohort retention rate at 81.8%. This is based on the number of first-time, full-time students who entered in Fall 2007 and were still enrolled the following fall semester.

GRADUATION

The Fall 2004 first-time, full-time cohort had a four-year graduation rate of 66.2%. The Fall 2002 first-time, full-time cohort had a six-year graduation rate of 72.1%.

The four- and six-year graduation rates continue to climb.

In 2008-09, 382 undergraduate students graduated.

In 2008-09, 84 graduate students graduated.

ALUMNI

Alumni from the Class of 2009 were surveyed one month after graduation to find out their immediate plans:

- 32% are pursuing a second bachelor's degree, a graduate degree, or professional degree
- 31% are seeking employment
- 29% are employed
- 8% are completing internships, in the military, volunteering, or were not seeking employment

