Students with a significant need related to the disruption of campus operations due to the coronavirus such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and child-care, may request Emergency Funding from Saint Vincent College under the CARES Act.

If you feel that you have a significant need that arose as a result of the coronavirus as noted above, please complete and submit this form. Documentation may be required. If so, it will be requested via your SVC email account and should be sent as soon as possible.

Emergency funding will be awarded based upon need, the number of requests, and the availability of funds.

According to the Department of Education, students receiving emergency funding must be considered eligible to receive federal Title IV funding. Therefore, if you wish to be considered for emergency funding, you should complete the 2020-21 FAFSA if you have not already done so.

I am requesting emergency funding for the following reasons (check all that apply):

- I lost income from a Saint Vincent College work-study job due to coronavirus
- I lost income from a job outside of Saint Vincent College due to coronavirus
- I lost healthcare benefits due to coronavirus
- Parent 1 has lost their job or has had a reduction in pay due to coronavirus
- Parent 2 has lost their job or has had a reduction in pay due to coronavirus
- My spouse has lost their job or has had a reduction in pay due to coronavirus
- I am an independent student without family support and I have lost my job or had a reduction in pay due to coronavirus
- I do not have a reliable computer or internet connection to continue classes online
- I/my family are facing unexpected out of pocket medical expenses due to coronavirus
- I am concerned about paying for the summer 2020 or fall 2020 semesters
- Other – please explain below

Emergency Funding will be sent via check to the address on file with SVC. If you need to make a change to your home/ mailing address, please send an email from your SVC email account to registrar@stvincent.edu.

By my signature, I confirm that I am requesting Emergency Funding related the disruption of campus operations due to the coronavirus as noted above and that any funds I receive will be used for this purpose. I understand that I may be asked to provide documentation prior to the release of funds.
